

NRPS New Professional Award

Qualifications:

The Nevada Recreation and Park Society New Professional Award is open to members of the society for special significance to the recreation and park movement. This award recognizes the contributions of individuals who are under 35 years of age, but have less than ten years experience as a paid professional in the field as of November 1st each year.

Award Criteria -

Professional Organization Involvement

- NRPS Offices and Committees
- Other NRPS Service
- NRPA Regional Council Service
- Other NRPA Service

Professional Field Leadership

- Park and Recreation Professional Experience
- Related field job activities and awards

Community Leadership

- Community Organization Offices and Committees
- Volunteer Service
- Public Speaking

Written Contribution

- Research Projects
- Books, magazines, and news articles
- Other pertinent information